

Seminar
during the Baptist Assembly

“The Persecuted Church: Challenge and Celebration”

by Baroness Caroline Cox

4pm, Saturday 2nd May 2009

at The Ballroom, Bournemouth International Hotel
(6 Priory Road, Bournemouth, BH2 5DL)

Over 250 million Christians are suffering persecution in the world today. Baroness Cox works with many in the Persecuted Church, including Baptists, holding the frontline of faith for the rest of the Church. These faithful disciples are paying a high price for our faith. Their priority request is always for prayer.

Baroness Cox invites us to travel with her in spirit to meet some of these faithful disciples. We will be humbled and inspired by their faith, courage, dignity and miracles of grace.

Baroness (Caroline) Cox was created a Life Peer in 1982 and was a deputy speaker of the House of Lords from 1985 to 2005. Amidst other honours she is Vice President of the Royal College of Nursing. She is heavily involved with international humanitarian work and as Chief Executive of HART [Humanitarian Aid Relief Trust], she has undertaken many missions to conflict zones around the world.

Admission free. It is not necessary to register for the Assembly to attend this seminar.
