

You may have heard about this approach to storytelling or the wondering questions or perhaps the golden parable boxes...

Well here is your chance to find out more, dispel the myths, become an accredited storyteller and transform your approach to biblical teaching...

Godly Play comes to Bristol

October 19th-21st 2009

at Wesley Conference Centre

For more details and booking form go to:

<http://www.godlyplay.org.uk>

'Let the stories speak for themselves and create space for children to make sense of what they hear through the thought provoking questions and creative resources of Godly Play. This training will change your perspective and build your confidence.'
Sian Hancock, Centre for Youth Ministry Course Leader