- Children & Family work in Social and Theological contexts
- Human development
- Spirituality and Pastoral care
- Biblical Studies and Practical Theology
- Approaches to Pedagogy
- Leadership, management and ministry

If you are then contact us for more information

Students

Students will be working with children and families in a Professional Practice Agency for the three years of the course, and two other agencies on a short-term basis. Students will be required to travel to Bristol two days each fortnight for lectures, tutorials and seminars. They will also be expected to spend another three days a fortnight studying.

We encourage students from a wide variety of backgrounds to consider joining the course. Please ask for further details about entrance requirements.

Professional

Could be an individual church or group of churches, a Christian children and family organization or agency: anywhere with a passion to see their ministry with children and families grow and develop. Professional Practice Agencies benefit from about fourteen hours a week of the students time for three years and in return offer students a range of financial support (e.g. books, accommodation, allowances, etc). They are also required to pay an annual agency fee to CYM and cover the student's travel costs to and from College.
